

Certified Home Health Assistant

We have a fulltime position for a CHHA to provide personal care for patients and families as part of the interdisciplinary team. They work under the supervision of the Registered Nurse Clinical Manager and are responsible for observing, reporting, and documenting care given.

The responsibilities of the position are:

- Providing patient care after receiving the patient assignment.
- Takes and records vital signs as necessary.
- Assists with patient range of motion and other simple procedures to maintain comfort.
- Reports patient's condition to the RNCM. Also observes caregiver and other family members to report coping issues.
- Assists with respite as appropriate for patient's caregiver/family.

Requirements:

- Meets training requirements of state and federal agencies, and can demonstrate competencies.
- Experience in hospice, long term care or medical/surgical care is preferred.
- Understands hospice philosophy and terminally ill patient needs.

If you are interested, please contact the Human Resources Department.